

November 4, 1970

Dear Mom and Dad,

It has been raining hard all day and it may be mixed with snow tonight, so you can see that winter will soon be here. Actually, at this time of year our weather is much like that in Washington but in a month or two it will seem more like Minneapolis to us.

It sounded like you had quite an evening when you went to the Swedish concert. There could hardly be a worse place to run out of gas than on the freeway. You were lucky to get help so soon. Last night we went to a play at the college, but it was kind of dull. On Saturday we are going up to the District to find a wedding present for our friends whom we will see in Sacramento. Also I would like to find something for Gail and Greg since we owe them a present too. We haven't heard from them yet; they are probably still getting settled.

We have changed our schedule several times but it now appears that we will arrive in Seattle on November 25 (Wednesday) on

Braniff flight 182

Arriving at: 8:58 PM from Portland.

We will be there on Thanksgiving and then leave Friday morning for Sacramento. I suppose someone can pick us up and deliver us; otherwise we can rent a car.

We are looking forward to seeing everyone and are counting the days till we leave. See you soon.

P.S. My diploma should arrive in a couple of weeks.
